Dear Parents:

Boomerang Backpacks is a local nonprofit organization that runs a children’s feeding program designed to help families in NE Indiana with food on weekends that may be struggling at this time. If this program could help someone in your family, please contact us. Although this program may not apply to your personal situation, we appreciate you taking the time to understand the benefits of the program.

Thanks to support from generous private donors and foundation grants, our elementary school will be offering a program called Boomerang Backpacks. The ‘backpacks’ will be filled with non-perishable foods and sent home on Friday afternoons with your child. Our goal is to provide children with some shelf-stable, easy to handle food over the weekends. This program will be of no cost to you and is supported through contributions from private donors, company sponsorships, grants and volunteers.

Your child will pick up a Boomerang Backpack on Friday afternoon at school in a disposable bag so there is no need to return any supplies each week. We only need your permission and cooperation for your child to participate.

This form needs to be returned to school office.
